A natural-born traveler, Jennifer has wandered this planet in search of wonderful treasures, and has found beauty and inspiration from the markets of Kathmandu or Zanzibar, to her own backyard. Her passion is to design fabrics that inspire people to create things to make your home uniquely you. She is creating fresh quilt patterns now for C&T Publishing, and also co-authored with her sister “In the Nursery”, a treatise of ways and means to build a safe, loving environment for your little ones using a favorite theme as a basis. Jennifer will happily bring her own secret stash for sale to our meeting, which is a rare treat for guilds—but because she is a local, we are special!!

November and December Guild meetings are on the SECOND Tuesday of the month . . .

Annual Auction Is Coming on

November 11th

Mark your Calendars! Next month, at the November 11th meeting, we will be holding our annual auction! This is a major fundraiser for the Guild and a major fun event for all. will take it from there, sorting and displaying. We also intend to have a Cash-and-Carry section similar to the one we held last year. Please . . . Make it a point to come, bring your donations (of all sizes), and your checkbook! See y'all there—your grateful Auctioneer and new VP . . .

Proposed Change to Bylaws

submitted by Kenan Shapero, Parliamentarian

After much deliberation, the Board has approved the following change to the Bylaws to be considered and voted on by the Guild membership at our November meeting. The main goal of this change is to reduce the number of membership categories from four to two, eliminating both the Senior and Student memberships. This would leave Regular and Junior (under 18) as the only membership categories and as of January 1, 2015 all active adult memberships would be at the same membership dues of $35.00. Senior members who have already renewed their 2014-15 memberships would not see any impact from this change until renewal in October 2015. No changes to the Newsletter Only or Affiliate categories. Some reasons for this proposed change:

- Mainly, there has been a steady decline in the number of Regular members in the Guild to the point that there are now far more Senior members than Regular members. This has led to decreased income from dues, which was not the intent of Senior membership.
- All adult members benefit equally from membership thus should pay equally.
- While we all work hard to keep expenses down, some expenses, like speaker fees, have increased dramatically over the last few years.
- Research of other guilds in our area shows that they have also simplified their membership categories.
- The last increase in dues, $5.00, was made in 2006.

Kenan Shapero (kshapero@mindspring.com) and Gloria Miller (gloriamillersf@gmail.com) are available to answer additional questions or concerns before the November meeting.

Section B. 1. Classification of members

QUILT San Francisco 2015 • March 20th & 21st

The Event Center @ St. Mary's Cathedral • 1111 Gough Street, San Francisco

Our Guild presents a bi-annual quilt show. It is held in a local large venue site—the 2015 event is moving from the Concourse to The Event Center at St. Mary's Cathedral, a beautiful San Francisco landmark, and will be held on March 20th and 21st, a Friday and Saturday this time, instead of the weekend. In recent years, we have showcased over 300 of our members' quilts along with other special exhibits and two featured artists. The show includes vendors who rent space to sell their products. In addition to being a wonderful artistic event, the show also provides the opportunity for the entire Guild to work together and to raise funds that support its activities for the following year. We need volunteers!

Featured Artist. Velda Newman, past QuiltAway teacher as well as master fiber artiste, has accepted our invitation to be the featured artist. Her large-scale quilts have so much detail, and are amazing.

Challenge Quilts. We are looking forward to the creation of our perpetually popular Challenge Quilts. Theme this year? "Ocean." Quilt size: 20" x 20" with a 3" sleeve on back. No fee, not judged.

Quilts and Crafts Shop. As in our Guild's previous quilt shows, we will again have a shop for members to sell their quilts, wall hangings, and other handmade quilt- and sewing-related craft items such as table runners, potholders, scarves, pincushions, dolls, tote bags, etc. This is a great sales opportunity for Guild members so we hope you will think about how you can participate! Information and rules as well as registration forms are due by January 20, 2015 (Guild night) and may be turned in to Carol Damm or Tish Chung at any Guild meetings before or on the due date or mailed to Carol Damm. With your participation we can make our Quilts and Crafts Shop a successful venture for all of us!

Publicity Team. We are on the way to publicizing our show! Our postcard with Velda Newman's quilt "Zinnias" is at the printers! Next, we'll be working on our show shop poster and a business card. We have a Publicity Team, and I could use one or two more volunteers. Contact Jeanie Low, at Guild meetings or contact her at wongyen@comcast.net.

Monthly Planning Meetings: To prepare for this exciting event, all show planning meetings will be held at the Police Academy. Here are some dates:
Oct meeting: November 1st (Oct 25th is the Sewcial)
Nov meeting: December 6th (Nov 29th is right after Thanksgiving).

If you are excited about all this or have ideas you want considered, come to the next QUILT San Francisco 2015 meeting—all are welcome.

QUILT San Francisco 2015: Calling for Quiltlets

submitted by Anna Chan

Come and help us to continue in growing our number of quiltlets. Since 2003, we have tied together members' quiltlets into a large quilt to welcome visitors at our quilt shows. We would like to add your quiltlet to the 150 we have and help transform it into a more vibrant quilt for our guests in 2015. Attend our October 25th Saturday Sewcial, and Anna can share her secrets!

Embroiderers' Guild of America, San Francisco Chapter

submitted by Christine Anderson

Monday November 13 7:30 P.M. Orts, not Ors. St. John's UCC, 501 Laguna Honda Boulevard.

Never dread a messy working space if you learn to construct an origami-style two-inch high pop-up collapsible travel box in needlepoint stitches to hold your orts, a German word for scraps and generally now meaning the leftover snipped threads from ongoing projects. SF EGA members Pat Furlong and Celia Rifkin have prepared a hands-on introduction to Reversible Blackwork and the Rice Stitch on interlock canvas using fibers called Overture and Watercolours. Tapestry needles provided as the celebration of the 39th anniversary of the local chapter begins at St. John's UCC. Registration deadline as well for 2015 SF chapter-administered White Iris six-month Group Correspondence Course written for The Embroiderers' Guild of America, Inc., focused on pulled-thread techniques using white threads on linen to form lace-like patterns. On Nov. 18th at 10 A.M., there's a stitched flat Gingerbread House assembly lesson held at Lincoln Park Presbyterian Church, 31st Avenue and Clement. Next January 10th, day and evening meeting sessions will be combined for offsite Mixed Media to produce appliques for needlework. ## Community Outreach: News . . .

submitted by Adrienne Hickman

Christmas Stockings for Ft. Miley Veterans

Pick up a Christmas stocking kit and instructions at the outreach table. The second one only takes about an hour from start to finish. The first one takes longer as you decipher my directions. Completed stockings will be filled with toiletries and small gifts and distributed to hospitalized veterans in San Francisco.

Birthing a Quilt

Birthing a quilt is easier than you think! We have lots of donated lap- and crib-size quilt tops that need finishing. Birthing a quilt, also called the pillowcase method, is a way of finishing a quilt without binding. We have easy directions for you to follow, and tops paired with backs and batting for you to finish.

Basically, to birth a quilt you layer the top and back right sides together, add the batting on top and stitch around the perimeter using a quarter-inch seam while leaving an opening for turning. Once the quilt is turned right-side out, you top stitch around the edge and "quilt as desired." Quilting can be simple straight-line quilting or a diagonal grid on the quilt. Or ask about other simple designs.

Save your Hobbs UPC Labels!

Hobbs Quilt Batting Company offers a charity price to guilds for rolls of batting. If we send them five UPC labels (bar codes) from Hobbs packaged batting, they will sell us a 96" by 30-yard roll of batting for our outreach quilts for an incredibly low price—less than half of retail. Turn your UPC labels in to the Community Outreach table at Guild meetings or mail them to Community Outreach (at P.O.

Box 27002, SF CA 94127). You can help stretch our outreach budget and get those lovely donated quilt tops out to those who need them.

Baby Quilts for S.F. General Hospitals!

San Francisco General Hospital has need of baby quilts (35" x 45") for new mothers. They do not have very many premature infants so cannot use our preemie quilts. Everyone loves making preemie quilts because they are quick and use up small amounts of fabric and batting. But, guess what? Community Outreach has lots of suitable fabric and batting for baby quilts. Pick up a kit at guild meetings or come to the Saturday Sewcial on November 15th and we will have fabric and patterns. Can we make 24 baby quilts before the end of the year?

Community Outreach Statistics

Since April 2014 we have delivered:

- 25 pillowcases to UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital
- 12 baby quilts to Homeless Prenatal
- 13 lap quilts to Mt. Zion Hospice
- 10 preemie quilts to Kaiser Neonatal Unit

We presently have

- 14 tops that are paired with batting but need backs
- 7 tops that need both backs and batting
- 13 tops with backs that need batting
- 3 tops ready for quilting

We have lots of batting scraps AND a roll of batting 103 inches by 30 yards! What we need are people to help pair batting and backs with tops. Call or email me to help.

Everyone, mark your calendars, start saving your pennies, and let us know your QuiltAway suggestions.

The Sewcial Scene

Sewcials are an important part of SFQG. Here's where we learn new techniques, and relearn those old techniques, share our creativity with each other, and just have fun. A supply list will be provided when you sign up (full supply list at Guild meeting or on website). In addition to the supply list for each Sewcial, please bring: extension cord, cutting board, rotary cutter, sewing machine, rulers, fabric, etc. Arrive about fifteen minutes before the start of the workshop (9:45 A.M.) to set up and get directions so that we can begin on time. Please remember that there are no refunds for cancellations. For the comfort of all, please attend Sewcials "fragrance-free." Feel free to bring your lunch or there are several places to eat within walking distance. Please pay fees when you sign up in advance for Sewcials. For more info, contact Kellie Neal at (510) 576-9812 <Kellie@tkneal.com>; or Sam McIlraith <hiketobird@gmail.com>. All Sewcials are held at the San Francisco Police Academy unless noted. Directions: SF Police Academy 350 Amber Drive (near Duncan; near Safeway). Take Muni bus #52 or drive your car, parking is free.

Have you completed a quiltlet? Share your quilt style by adding an 8.5" square of your choice to the Guild's on-growing collection. Quiltlets will be hung at QUILT San Francisco 2015!
