San Francisco Quilters Guild – February 2015

Website: www.sfquiltersguild.org Guild Contact: sfqg.info@gmail.com

President's Message

February is one of the most active months in our quilting year as we finalize all the steps necessary to put on our quilt show in March. This is the time to show off our quilts and our Guild to others. This year we have lots of newness . . . a new location . . . new parking or transportation . . . new layout, etc. This could also be your time to volunteer or volunteer in a different position(s). Participating creates a sense of ownership and a greater degree of pride. Over time, I have learned that volunteering is a gift I give myself much more than a duty to someone or something else. I hope you find that wonderful feeling that comes from participating in the quilt show as a hostess preparing for and welcoming others instead of just being a guest. I look forward to participating with you in our preparations.

All the best,

Jane Strem, SFQG President 2014-2015

February 17th: Ben Venom: "Traditional at Lightning Speed"

Ben Venom is interested in juxtaposing traditional handmade crafts with extreme elements found on the fringes of society. Ben describes his work as opposing forces colliding at lightning speed. Imagery found in vintage tattoos, the occult, and motorcycle gangs are stitched together with recycled materials . . . Serious, yet attempting to take on a B-movie horror-film style where ridiculousness becomes genius. Ben's quilts are made of T-shirts; his art, though, is not your standard T-shirt quilt.

Holding a Masters of Fine Arts from San Francisco Art Institute, Ben lives and works in San Francisco. His work has been included in ARTFORUM Magazine, and he was selected for Bay Area Now 6 at Yerba Buena Center for the Arts. His work has been shown nationally and internationally and he was interviewed on NPR: All Things Considered, and by Creative Mojo Radio. Ben's website: www.benvenom.com. Ben Venom blog with Creative Mojo interview: benvenom.blogspot.com

March 17th: Jenny Bowker: "Pack and Follow • Travel and Quilting"

Since 1997, Jenny Bowker has focused on melding her fine art work with her textile work; she is interested in the way pattern comes into many parts of our lives and she often includes some geometrical piecing in her work for two reasons: it keeps her technically on her toes, and, it provides a key for traditional quilters to link to her work. Jenny's presentation is of her life as both a quilter and as a diplomat's wife, showing how her travels, mostly in Arab and Islamic countries, have influenced her work. Originally hailing from Australia, locally you may find Jenny teaching through Empty Spools Seminars in Asilomar—currently where she is scheduled to teach March 22–27. www.jennybowker.com/quilts

Library Team Needs Help

Due to a physical disability Cher can no longer wrestle the weight of books; therefore, we need someone to store book donations for the annual December Book Sale. This event makes a significant amount of money for our Guild and so we would like it to continue. If you can do this contact Cher @ delamere.cheryl@gmail.com

QUILT San Francisco: 2015 • Volunteers Needed

If you have a quilt in the show you must volunteer for a minimum of two hours. Volunteering allows free admission. Here are the categories of jobs: ✂ set up (start time to be announced); ✂ equipment wrangling (three hours Wednesday afternoon March 18th); judging (all day Wednesday March 18th); admissions; ribbon pinning/wearable art; membership table/DVD sales; makers corner (make-and-take projects with public); raffle-quilt ticket sales; white gloves; store; security (sit at exit doors); viewers' choice retrieval of stickers and tallying; take down; quilt return. Most shifts are 10–12, 12–2 and 2–5 (Saturday last shift is 2–4 with take down at 4 P.M.). Sign up at the Feb 17th meeting. Cher DelaMere, volunteers coordinator

Embroiderers' Guild of America

submitted by Christine Anderson

Tuesday March 17 10 A.M. – 1 P.M. Silk Ribbon Seasonal Puzzle Patchwork Ornament

Lincoln Park Presbyterian Church Burnside Hall, San Francisco; corner 31st Avenue and Clement Street

On pre-machine sewn crazy-quilt five patchwork fabrics that can be of a variety of themes, learn to stitch embellishment seams with mixed widths of silk ribbon and five stitches (or more, time permitting) for a 6.5-inch high seasonal ornament. This class taught by Christine Anderson. Reserve your space by 2/24/2015 by sending payment of $12 for the kit (ribbons include Gloriana dyed silk-taffeta ribbon, pearl cotton, cotton floss, chenille and tapestry needles, 4.5" x 6.5" matboard oval, and optional pre-sewn five-fabric background). Bring needle threader, sharp scissors; hoop is optional and any additional silk ribbons, beads, and embellishment charms for your own theme results. Background fabric can be Easter, patriotic, Halloween/ Yuletide if specified with advance kit reservation. Payment to SF EGA, sent to c/o Anderson @ 3327 Scott St., SF 94123-2013.

March ends the EGA annual membership year so $17 additional (prorated) dues includes local benefits and one issue of the national publication NeedleArts. More info (415) 931-9018 or sf.ega.13@gmail.com

Community Outreach

submitted by Adrienne Hickman

Guild members were busy all last year making and finishing quilts for Community Outreach. Since January 1, 2015, we have delivered the following:

- UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital PICU: 26 pillowcases
- SF Kaiser Hospital: 28 preemie quilts
- Epiphany Center: 5 twin, 22 toddler quilts
- SF General Hospital Birthing Center: 17 baby quilts

All of the hospitals would love to receive more quilts and pillowcases. We will have kits at the meetings, but in the meantime it would be wonderful if you were to continue making baby quilts and pillowcases from your own stashes. Remember, preemie quilts are minimum of 24" x 24" to 30" x 30", and baby quilts are a minimum of 36" x 36" to 36" x 45".

Epiphany House serves mothers and their children up to three years of age. They could use twenty more twin-sized quilts. We have at least three ready for quilting by QuiltWorks. If you have taken advantage of the free longarm classes at QuiltWorks you can practice your skills on one of our outreach quilts. Email me at adrienne152@earthlink.net to find out how to get a quilt to work on. QuiltWorks quilted four of the five large quilts donated to Epiphany Center for which we are grateful!

Dimensions for Quilts
preemie quilts:	24" x 24" to 30" x 30"
baby quilts:	36" x 36" to 36" x 45"
twin-size quilts:	60" x 80"

Joe Cunningham Featured in National Magazine

Our fellow Guild member Joe Cunningham has done it again: he got viewed and interviewed in the public eye. He was recently quoted in the San Jose Mercury News in an article written by correspondent and blogger Kathryn Pritchett <allthingselemental.com> about an Amish-style quilt exhibit at the San Jose Museum of Quilts and Textiles. Joe is also featured under his own byline in the March/April 2015 McCall's Quilting magazine: The Amish and Me. Kudos to Joe-the-Quilter for promoting art and beauty during all his days.

Sell Raffle Tickets for Opportunity Quilt

submitted by Cher delaMere

Raffle quilt tickets packets for our beautiful "Puzzle Boxes" Opportunity Quilt must be sold. Each Guild member is responsible for 12 tickets to buy oneself or to sell to friends or strangers. Tickets $1 each or 6 for $5. Drawing will be held March 21st at QUILT San Francisco: 2015. Need not be present to win.

February Board Meeting

This month's meeting will be held February 24th at 7 P.M., at Ortega branch library, 3223 Ortega Street. All members are welcome and invited to join; committee chairs please submit email reports if not attending.

QuiltAway 2016 • February 25th-28th

Save the date! QuiltAway is coming . . . Please watch the Guild website for details about our fabulous instructors: Jean Wells, Laura Nownes, Karla Alexander, and Denise Oyama Miller.

QUILT San Francisco: 2015

Friday, March 20th 10 to 7
 Saturday, March 21st 10 to 4
 The Event Center @ St. Mary's Cathedral
 1111 Gough Street, San Francisco
 admission: two-day pass $12

With all of your help, the quilt show is almost here. This year's featured Textile Artist is Velda Newman, author and quilt artiste. There will be 300+ new quilts and wearable art for your viewing pleasure created by San Francisco Quilters Guild members. For your shopping enjoyment there will be a Merchant Mall with some fine vendors, as well as our Quilt and Craft Shop, with quilts and other handmade items for sale. As a special treat, we have Nancy Bavor, an AQS-certified quilt appraiser available on site; for appointments, contact dortequilt@me.com. New this year will be a Shopping Happy Hour on Friday, from 4-7 P.M. (sponsored by QuiltWorks). Refreshments will be available for purchase. Go Green and take the #38 Geary bus to within a short walk to the Event Center at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Quilt Drop Off - In this newsletter you will find the list of satellite houses to drop off your quilts, on the weekend between Friday, March 13th and Sunday, March 15th. The list can also be found on our website.

Make sure you're still letting your friends know about the show and inviting them to participate. Christine Tanabe will be happy to sell you $10 discount tickets. And you can sign up for your DVD of the show, a quilt appraisal, and many other opportunities at the quilt-show table. As Sue Fox would emphasize to everyone: This is BOTH our most fabulous Show & Tell, as well as a huge fundraiser for the Guild.

As a Show & Tell, it would be really sad if any of our friends, family, or neighbors were to say, "I didn't know you were having a Quilt Show . . ." And as a fundraiser, getting our friends, family, and neighbors in the door is our greatest opportunity to raise the intake from all our efforts to pull this show together. Be sure to let them know that we will have the Shopping Happy Hour from 4-7 P.M. on Friday, March 20th which will be a great time to unwind from work, have a delightful beverage, and see some fantastic quilts!

Finally, remember that if you have submitted quilts to be in the show, you are expected to volunteer. If you will NOT have quilts in the show, be sure to volunteer (volunteers receive free admission). Otherwise, pay the $10 advance admission or $12 at the door for the two-day show. Advance Tickets are available at the quilt-show table at all meetings. And, we will be trying out a new system to determine Viewers' Choice (as seen at the Peninsula Guild Show). We need a volunteer to help with this. If you are interested in this position, let Lee Schulstad or me (Kenan) know. And please keep selling those Opportunity Quilt tickets.

So PLEASE, Promote, Promote, PROMOTE!!

Publicity Remember, QUILT San Francisco: 2015 is just a little over a month away . . . Information packets about the show have been sent to all local print and broadcast media sources. It is still the perfect time to spread the word about our show among your family, friends, coworkers, etc. Not too early, not too late. Please take a supply of posters, business cards, and postcards from our February Guild meeting—both the show and the Opportunity Quilt postcards—to share information about our show. Word of mouth helps too. Talk it up!

Planning Meeting. There are only TWO more planning meetings before the show, on February 7th and March 7th; at 10 A.M. at the Police Academy.

Satellite Houses: Quilt Drop-Off Sites

free pattern @ pbtex.com

Following is the list of members who have volunteered their homes to collect quilts and garments during the weekend prior to the show, Friday March 13th, Saturday March 14th, and Sunday March 15th. It is important that you bring your entries to one of these locations so your entry can be cataloged, sorted, judged (if you desire), and be ready for the show set-up committee. No provisions have been made for drop-off on judging day, set-up day, or on show days. Please call the Satellite House in advance to let them know you are coming.

Update: 156 Quiltlets

submitted by Anna Chan

We added five more quiltlets at our January meeting. Come and view these beauties when you attend our next Guild meeting. Our thanks to Jo Banvard (member since October 2013), Sara Johnson (member since 2012), Gwen Matteucci (member since 2012), Edwina Ow (member since 2006), and Laraine Salmon (member since 2011) for making memberships visible through our quiltlets. Keep them coming in for QUILT San Francisco: 2015! ☺

The Sewcial Scene

Sewcial are an important part of SFQG. Here's where we learn new techniques, and relearn those old techniques, share our creativity with each other, and just have fun. A supply list will be provided when you sign up (full supply list at Guild meeting or on website). In addition to the supply list for each Sewcial, please bring: extension cord, cutting board, rotary cutter, sewing machine, rulers, fabric, etc. Arrive about fifteen minutes before the start of the workshop (9:45 A.M.) to set up and get directions so that we can begin on time. Remember, there are no refunds for cancellations. For the comfort of all, please attend Sewcial "fragrance-free." Feel free to bring your lunch or there are several places to eat within walking distance. Please pay fees when you sign up in advance for Sewcial. For more info contact Kellie Neal <Kellie@tkneal.com>; or Sam McIlraith <hiketobird@gmail.com>. All Sewcial are held at the San Francisco Police Academy unless noted.

Directions to the Police Academy:

SF Police Academy 350 Amber Drive (near Duncan and Safeway). Muni bus #52; if by car, free parking.

February 21st; 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. .... Working with Large Scale Prints with Kellie Neal.

Do you have some large scale print fabrics that you haven't been able to decide to how to use? If so, this pattern is just what you have been waiting for. Come join us in making this fun, quick, and easy pattern that is very visually striking. Those beautiful Kaffe Fassett fabrics, Japanese prints, or large florals will all turn out wonderful. $20 class fee payable upon sign-up. Supply list available online.

March 21st; ..... no Saturday Sewcial, due to quilt show

April 25th; 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. .... The Mechanical Quilt with Lynne Pillus

Taking a look at Lynne's mechanical quilts you see her exquisite sense of value as well as a vital subject matter: machinery. From farm equipment to carousel horse, using any one of Lynne's patterns you will learn her technique for producing an easy fusible-style quilt. Guild member class fee of $60 includes pattern ($12* value). Select your pattern from her website and let Sam McIlraith (hiketobird@gmail.com) know which pattern you will be using. The class will also briefly cover how to make a pattern from your own photo. Class attendance confirmed with payment on a first-come basis; mail check/registration to Sam's home address (in roster). Select pattern at: www.mechanicalquilt.com/shop/patterns/.
