President's Message

Once again, this seems like an exciting month. I did very little sewing/quilting last year. Last month, I made two blocks for different “block of the month” sets and am inspired to use the patterns to make a whole quilt. I’ve completed three outreach pillowcases, have made two baby quilt tops from fabrics in my stash, have layered both, and have started quilting one of them. Hopefully by our September meeting I’ll have something for Show & Tell (assuming our election doesn’t take too long).

I’m also really excited about the plans and preparations for upcoming activities: I’m looking forward to helping to make our opportunity quilt, to our special November and December events, and Quiltaway in February . . . not to mention a great line-up of speakers and Saturday Sewcials for our new membership year. I am also impressed that for the last few meetings, most members have stayed past our normal ending time because the speakers have been so interesting.

I am delighted to be working with such great people in this Guild as I continue to get to know each of you (and get to know some of you better). This past year has been great for me as your president. I thank each of the board members for making my job as president easy and fun. I thank you for all you have done—whether it has been historically or recently—to make this a wonderful Guild. I look forward to continuing to have quilting fun together.

Sew Happy! — Jane

Speakers of the Month

September 15th: Rob Appell: “Quilts from the Sea and Beyond”

In a talk that’s part comic-relief trunk show and part lecture, Rob describes the path he’s taken from his mother’s Morro Bay quilt shop to his newest venture in quilting edutainment, www.ManSewing.com. Fabric designer, quilt maker, blogger, appliqué expert, author, and instructor, Rob is known for his high energy, his love of the sea, his commitment to raising awareness of endangered species, and a humorous approach to quilt instruction. Rob will also be teaching his techniques for color-strata quilts at a Sewcial with a special date and location: Wednesday, September 16th from 10 to 4 at QuiltWorks. www.robappell.com.

October 20th: Gloria Loughman: “The Quilted Landscape”

Have you thought about making a quilt to capture your memories of a special place? Perhaps a wonderful vacation spot, the view from your living-room window, or a memory of a special place from childhood . . . No matter what the inspiration, creating a landscape quilt is an achievable project. The process combines making decisions about design and color choices as well as incorporating accurate construction techniques. This lecture will focus on these components, solving the mystery of where to begin. www.glorialoughman.com.

The Sewcial Scene

Sewcial are an important part of our Guild. Here's where we learn new techniques, and relearn those old skills, share our creativity with each other, and just have fun. A supply list will be provided when you sign up (full supply list at Guild meetings or on website). In addition to the supply list for each Sewcial, please bring: extension cord, cutting board, rotary cutter, sewing machine, rulers, fabric, etc. Arrive about fifteen minutes before the start of the workshop (9:45 A.M.) to set up and get directions so that we can begin on time. Remember, there are no refunds for cancellations. For the comfort of all, please attend Sewcial "fragrance-free." You can bring your lunch or enjoy several places to eat within walking distance. Please pay fees when you sign up in advance for Sewcial. For more info contact Kellie Neal @ Kellie@tkneal.com. Our September Sewcial will be held at QuiltWorks; our October Sewcial will be held at the San Francisco Police Academy;

Directions to the Police Academy:

SF Police Academy 350 Amber Drive (near Duncan and Safeway). Muni bus #52; if by car, free parking.

[Wednesday] September 16th; 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. .... Color Strata Quilts

Spend a day with Rob Appell, learning his tricks for building color-strata quilts that are fun, easy, and a great canvas for machine quilting. We'll focus on cutting and constructing various types of strata, adding pop colors, and building a quilt top. Fee: $65 for Guild members, $75 for nonmembers. Student requirements will be available at the Sewcial table at the September meeting. Special Sewcial location: QuiltWorks @ 2189 Bayshore Blvd., SF.

October 24th; 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. .... Opportunity Quilt AND Community Outreach Share a Sewcial

Spend a day or an hour with two important Guild undertakings! For the opportunity-quilt project: Maren Larsen will illustrate paper piecing techniques, which will be utilized in our Storm at Sea pattern being made into our 2017 opportunity quilt. Community Outreach, sharing the space and the day, has fun things to do!

Board Minutes Summary from August Meeting

submitted by Jane Strem

During the August Board meeting, we discussed the proposed 2015-2016 budget and recommended a few changes. We discussed the election in September and decided who would create the ballot, how many would be needed, and who would count them. At the October meeting, we will provide anniversary cake(s) as part of the refreshments. For our anniversary in 2016, we would like to have a 35th-anniversary party which needs a chairperson. We discussed having it in July (no speaker is currently scheduled) or November or December in lieu of traditional activities those months. No decision has been made on the date. We reviewed plans for the crafting activities during the December meeting. The opportunity-quilt project needs a chairperson. Maren Larsen is working on a paper-pieced pattern for the blocks. We discussed sharing the October 24th Sewcial scheduled for Outreach with the opportunity-quilt team to make blocks or pick up the pattern and possibly fabric to make the blocks at home. We discussed colors and fabrics. Gloria will email pictures of a possible look for the quilt. We also need a chairperson for the 2017 quilt show. The next steps in selling our excess quilt frames was discussed as well as the new storage needs for those we will retain. We have tentatively scheduled the New Member Sewcial for July 2016. We did not have one in 2015 (and won't for this current membership year) so we have a strong intention to make it a priority for the 2016 membership year. Thanks to both Lee Schulstadt and Anna Chan for volunteering to be Membership Chairs.

The next Board meeting will be a potluck dinner for the outgoing and incoming Board members. The location will be announced. As always, Guild members are welcomed.

A Note from Your Parliamentarian

submitted by Kenan Shapero

Just a reminder that we will vote for our 2015-16 officers at the September 15th meeting. Please plan to be there. Our nominations are: President: Jane Strem; Vice-president: Janet Mednick; Treasurer: Gloria Miller; Secretary: Carol Aiken; and Parliamentarian: Claudia Shearer.

The nominating committee will be ready at the door with voting ballots and will hand one to each member. Please don't vote early, as we must accept nominations from the floor. Those nominations will be accepted at the end of the officer/committee report segments. We will vote during the break between Show & Tell and our speaker, and the results will be announced at the end of the Speaker's presentation.

Board Candidates for 2015-2016

candidate for president: JANE STREM is currently serving as Guild President. She first visited the Guild as a guest then joined in order to attend the 30th-anniversary dinner. She joined the Secret Pal program and became its coordinator. She was a participant in our last quilt show, and attended Quiltaway. She has contributed outreach quilts and often makes blocks for Block of the Month, and is currently making blocks for Judy Woodfill. Jane has been sewing since she was twelve, has a degree in Home Economics with a clothing and textiles emphasis, and has been a textile sales rep selling European fabrics to fabric stores and manufacturers. Being in and out of fabric stores every day, the quilting urge finally caught her in the mid-1980s and after a move to the Bay Area in the early 1990s she began quilting in a big way. She tends to make traditional functional quilts and has been commissioned and sold many. Jane has also ventured into hand-embroidered elements, hand quilting, and art quilts; but her favorite part of quilting is collecting fabric that happens to be spilling out of her second-bedroom quilt studio.

candidate for vice president: JANET MEDNICK is currently serving as Guild Vice President. She has been a member since 1994 and during her twenty years of membership has held numerous offices including president, vice president, program chair, and Saturday Sewcial chair. In addition, she has co-directed Quiltaway twice and has tirelessly contributed in multiple ways to the success of many quilt shows and opportunity quilts. We also know Janet as a generous teacher. Her favorite quilting technique includes making traditional patterns more

candidate for secretary: CAROL AIKEN started on her journey to quilting through her art and interior-design background. She has been quilting since 2001 and joined the Guild shortly thereafter. She is semi-retired after a long career as a real-estate broker, and she is the happy grandmother of two little boys.

candidate for treasurer: GLORIA MILLER is currently serving as Guild Treasurer. She is a charter member and has been president (twice), program chair, and parliamentarian. She has chaired numerous committees and projects including Quiltaway, and has actively participated in long-range planning, opportunity quilts, program planning, and quilt shows. She is currently active in two sewing groups. Sewing has been a part of Gloria's life since childhood, but a quilt given to her daughter in 1969 actually sparked her desire to start making quilts. Scrap quilts, using multiple fabric patterns, are her favorite quilt style.

candidate for parliamentarian: CLAUDIA SHEARER joined the Guild at the quilt show in 2013, inspired by the fantastic array of quilts on display. She is an active member of the Sew Modern sewing circle, and was a committee member for the quilt show in 2015. Mostly self-taught, Claudia started making quilts ten years ago after the birth of two grand-nephews. She discovered online patterns for some simple quilts and was on her way. Claudia's love of experimentation and trying new techniques has led her to make all kinds of quilts but what ties them together is her love of bright and vibrant colors. Currently she is making improvisational, modern, and art quilts.

Leadership Openings

The following standing committees still have leadership openings for 2015-2016 (that we know of so far):

|                         |                   |                |
|-------------------------|-------------------|----------------|
| Block of the Month      | NCQC              | Secret Pals    |
| Equipment / Room Set-Up | Opportunity Quilt | Sewcials       |
| Hospitality             | Quilt Show 2017   | Sewing Circles |

Most of these committees could benefit from having several people on the committee to support its leader . . . So, if you can't be the new leader, perhaps you can be on the team . . .

San Francisco Quilters Guild 2015-16 Budget

submitted by Gloria Miller

At the September general meeting, Guild members will be asked to vote on their 2015-16 budget. The budget is based on historical financial records, input from committees, and conservative projections of income and expenses. The following budget has been reviewed and approved by the Executive Board.

This year's budget includes a deposit to St Mary's for the 2017 quilt show and some early vendor income, a deposit to the Mercy Center for Quiltaway 2018, and the estimated cost of materials for, and first income from, our next opportunity quilt.

For the first time in four years the program budget has been increased and Saturday Sewcial expense includes supplemental funding, if needed, to encourage and increase workshop participation by making participant fees affordable and consistent. The Guild is financially healthy and has a full calendar with exciting events; inspiring speakers, challenging workshops, Quiltaway, and a quilt show—but membership dues alone do not support all of the ongoing activities of the Guild. Your participation in important ongoing fundraising activities such as our quilt show, auction, book sale, and opportunity quilt helps to provide the additional income needed to support the Guild.

Please review this budget and if you have any questions or concerns, email Gloria Miller, Treasurer, at gloriamillersf@gmail.com or call her at (415) 387-6508. Your comments are welcomed.

History Corner

submitted by Jeanie Low

Our guild was established in 1981 and next month we celebrate our 34th-year anniversary. We're proud to continue the tradition with our love of creating with fabric, volunteering, new ideas, welcoming others, and our community-outreach efforts. Our Guild doesn't function without our officers and all of us helping with other necessary tasks. Thank you and congratulations to everyone.

Our first president, Caroline Lieberman, is still a Guild member. She is also an instructor teaching quilting through the Older Adults program with the local community college, City College of San Francisco.

We'll celebrate with cake next month. Janet Mednick will order a cake and will need volunteers to cut and plate it, as well as to help with clean-up. Please contact me, Jeanie Low, at wongyen@comcast.net.

Community Outreach News

submitted by Adrienne Hickman

Christmas Bags All completed bags must be returned no later than the November 10th Guild meeting. The bags will be filled with toiletries and other small gifts and delivered to Fort Miley for hospitalized veterans. Do you have Christmas fabric that no longer speaks to you? Donate it to the veterans' project! We can always use it.

Saturday Sewcial October 21st Community Outreach will be sharing the Sewcial with the Opportunity Quilt Committee. Maren Larsen will be teaching paper piecing for the Storm at Sea opportunity quilt. For those of you who already know how to paper piece, we will have outreach projects to work on. We will have several lap quilts to be quilted, so please bring your walking foot or free-motion foot. Two quilts are ready for binding. Kits and patterns for baby or lap quilts will be available. Lunch will be provided.

Community Outreach Statistics At the August Guild meeting Outreach received seventeen pillowcases, thirteen finished quilts, and two Christmas bags. Two quilts were returned with binding applied. Members picked up four unfinished quilts or kits and fourteen pillowcase kits. Seven of the fifteen Christmas goodie-bag kits assembled by Trudy Hom-Gee and friends were signed out. They must be returned no later than the November meeting so that the bags can be filled with toiletries and other small gifts and delivered to Fort Miley for hospitalized veterans. The bags are much easier to construct than the stockings we did last year. I hope all fifteen kits will be finished and that we will need to ask for more.

Quiltaway 2016 • February 25th-28th

Get an up-close-and-personal look at the kinds of classes being featured at Quiltaway 2016. The sneak peek at our September 15th meeting will include some wedge-quilt samples by Laura Nownes, a Jean Wells-inspired quilt (made in one of her classes), a quilt top and sample block from a Karla Alexander class, and two landscape quilts by Denise Oyama Miller. Registration forms and scholarship-request forms will be available at the September 15th meeting. And if you've made your decisions, you may submit your form(s)—along with your deposit—to the Quiltaway team. See more at www.sfquiltersguild.org.

Embroiderers' Guild of America, San Francisco branch

submitted by Christine Anderson

What's in a Name? 7:30 to 9 P.M. Monday, October 12, St. John's UCC, 501 Laguna Honda Blvd. If Columbus Day is celebrated for the man who gets so much credit for the discovery of America, come to this meeting to learn how to design and stitch your own flash in history. The program is a focus on nametags. If you've seen the extraordinary SF Main Public Library exhibit of envelopes self-addressed by Alan Blackman, you'll know that decorative inspiration for your name can arise from many sources. Tracing paper, pencils; books on lettering, typography; cross-stitch alphabet charts will be circulated. Needle, embroidery floss, larger diameter pearl cotton, and other supplies can propel your design into a functional nametag. Bring an iron and protective pad if you want to see how to transfer designs to a fabric you prefer. Let us show you how to transfer designs with basting thread and tissue paper onto textural surfaces. Have you experimented with conductive threads and want to have the surprise of a glow-in-the-dark nametag? Prorated membership dues are $34, with inquiries to Membership Chairman Christine Anderson, or checks payable to SF EGA sent to her at 3327 Scott Street, San Francisco, CA 94123-2013. ## Storage News

The storage committee has been hard at work locating new storage for our much-reduced quilt-show equipment. Our present storage at Hunter's Point Naval Shipyard is scheduled for destruction in October. Commercial storage is expensive and no Guild members had come forward with an offer of space. Then our star Guild member Martha Schwarz realized that she had an unused space in her garage perfectly suited for the eighty frame pieces we are keeping for quilt display. Problem solved.

Limited Time Offer

The Guild is making quilt-show frames and pieces available to you. Individual pieces—3/4" x 1-1/2" x 8', sanded and sealed—are perfect for displaying quilts at home or other venues. Whole assembled frames—8' x 8'—would make a great design wall. Frames are $5 (includes 5 pieces and hardware), individual pieces are $1. Contact Kenan @ kenanshapero@gmail.com or 415 587-1989. Distribution will take place at the October Sewcial. Take advantage of this rare opportunity to bring home a piece of the Quilt Show.

Block of the Month: Jack o'Lantern Block

Will be drawn at October 2015 meeting

Cut a black square 12 1/2" x 12 1/2". Cut an orange pumpkin approximately 8 1/2" to 9 1/2" in diameter. I'll bring some template samples to the September meeting; Jack o'Lanterns are not supposed to be perfect. Appliqué or wonder-under the pumpkin to the black square*. Use yellow fabric to make eyes, nose, and mouth or whatever else you want. Appliqué or wonder-under to pumpkin.

-- * If you are doing needle-turn appliqué, you will need to add 1/4" to the pumpkin and face pieces.

Questions? contact Sheila Salomon (415) 566-8326 or email SheilaSalomon@comcast.net.
